

A group of IDF officers will be visiting the Government Center on Tuesday, March 28, 2017 at 11:30 a.m. in the Mayor's Conference Room. The discussion will last about an hour.

As you know, the JCC Tzahal Shalom Program has been bringing active-duty IDF officers to the Stamford community for the past 39 years. These young men and women meet with high school and college students along with various adult groups. Typically the topics that they discuss are Israel's culture, the diversity of the people, Israel as a democracy, pluralism, being an officer (roles, responsibilities and experiences), defending one's country, etc. The officers will arrive in uniform, and are not permitted to speak about politics--but there are plenty of things they can address.

Mayor Martin invites you and members of your boards to join him on March 28th.

Please RSVP if you are planning on attending.

Thanks!

Val
