

United Jewish Federation of Greater Stamford, New Canaan & Darien

Yom HaShoah 2017

Holocaust Memorial Exhibit

Premiere exhibit of:
"Photos and Reflections of a Local Holocaust Survivor"

&

Yad Vashem's

"The Anguish of Liberation as Reflection in Art"

This special display, based on the collection of the Yad Vashem, features works created between 1945 and 1947 and attempts to investigate how survivors reacted to the liberation through art.

Opening Reception

April 3rd

5:30pm-7:00pm

with Mayor David Martin

Government Center Lobby

888 Washington Boulevard, Stamford

Designer: Sherry Steiner

Then Save the Date for...

Yom HaShoah Event

April 23rd at 4:30pm at Temple Beth El

"A Community Wide Remembrance of the Holocaust: Through the Lens of the Cinema"

Exhibit will run through April 7th, 10am, and will re-open at Temple Beth El on April 23rd at 4:30pm for "A Community Wide Remembrance of the Holocaust: Through the Lens of the Cinema"

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Eric Goldman.

Co-Chairs: Barbara Webski & Sherry Steiner

The entire community is welcome to both events, no charge.

Brought to you by

United Jewish Federation of Greater Stamford, New Canaan & Darien.