

The more you know about frogs,
the hoppier
you'll be!

SAVE THE DATE

for the
Stamford Land
Conservation Trust
Annual Meeting

Special Guest

Jim Sirch

Education Coordinator at the Yale Peabody Museum of Natural History will talk about

It's a Frog's Life: The Life Histories of Connecticut's Frogs and Toads

Jim will focus on the current status, identification and research about the 11 species of frogs and toads living in CT, he'll tell us how to recognize their different calls and share information about FrogWatchUSA. If you've always wanted to learn more about frogs, this is your chance! Jim's presentation will be ribbiting.

When:
Wednesday, October 17, 2018

Where:
Stamford Museum and Nature Center
39 Scofieldtown Rd

Plenty of Parking Available

Time:
6:30-9:30pm

Light snacks and refreshments provided.

